

Marion Friends of Smyth County Public Library invite you to join us and support our community library services!

We are back after a couple of challenging years and moving forward with our membership drive, planning book sales, fun programs and events, fundraising and volunteering for special projects that promote the bright future of our library. We are so excited because we have "Something For Everyone" as does our library!

Marion Friends moving forward with:

*Membership Drive, Beginning April 19th – join us to support special programs, funding events and volunteering opportunities for our Library's active and bright future. Our Friends are a non-profit volunteer group.

*Plans for May through August new and used book sales in Marion Library Garage.

*Providing volunteers, books and prizes, refreshments, and financial support for Youth Services programming from Summer Reading throughout 2021.

*full support for continuing education opportunities for our Library staff, their families, and residents of Smyth County

Marion Friends Fall Fling, lots of Fun, Food and Fellowship. Date and location to be announced
